These anger management worksheets will help you to identify your anger triggers and find more effective ways to deal with anger.

What is anger?

Anger is an emotion. It is a signal that we think we are being treated unfairly.

Feelings are neither right nor wrong. It is okay to feel angry.

Actions can be right or wrong. It is not okay to hurt ourselves, others, or property when we feel angry.

So how can we deal with anger and act in healthy ways?

1) Recognize anger - know when you are angry and what makes you angry.

2) Practice positive responses - practice, practice, practice until your new positive responses become good habits

Quick List of Ways to Cope with Anger

Walk away

Exercise

Talk to someone who you are not feeling angry with

Distract yourself

Count 10 breaths

Write about it

Come back and deal with it later when you feel calm

Practice positive reactions to everyday stresses

Walk away instead of reacting in anger. It’s okay to stomp your feet if you need to!

Exercise. This helps get rid of the physical energy that is built up by anger.

Talk to someone who you are not feeling angry with. Phone a friend, relative, or professional. Tell them about what happened and how you are feeling.

Distract yourself. Do something you enjoy, like reading, TV, music, games, going to the store, cooking a meal.... and take your mind off the anger. Come back and deal with it when you are feeling calmer.

Count 10 breaths. The reasons for counting your breaths are: 1) to calm and relax you by breathing more deeply and 2) to pause for a few moments instead of reacting automatically.

Write about it. Get your feelings and thoughts out on paper instead of confronting the source of your anger right away.

Deal with it when you feel calm. Get away from the situation, and come back later. You will react more positively.

The more practice you get at reacting in positive ways, waiting until the anger goes down a little before responding, and learning new habits, the more easily you will be able to manage anger.
